Straw Hat ChatFOR ONE WEEK.

Wonderful, the style and comfort tacked together with straw. Some men are just stubborn enough to look into their five-dollar derby for the label and then think of a straw hat. If the label leads you no nearer the better than a thought, you are a couple dollars in, provided your thought leads you here. All the hats in styles and some of our own. Price, all our own—50c.

Women Engineers.

Miss Marian Parker of Detroit is the first woman to graduate from the engineering department of the University of Michigan. She won the degree of bachelor of science in civil engineering, took the full course, and stood well at the head of her class. Her object, she says, is to become a practical architect. There are now only about 50 or 60 women in this profession, one in Philadelphia, two in New York, several in New Orleans and others scattered about. Miss Parker's thesis for graduation was a design for a fireproof apartment building, on which she spent nearly the whole of her last semester, although not constant in her work. To an engineer who knows what it means to design such a building—figuring out the strength of every piece of iron in its construction—this will not seem a long time.—Ladies' Every Saturday.

A Canadian Postmistress.

Miss Sarah Dobson has been appointed postmistress of Yorkville, Canada. Her father had had charge of the office for 43 years. The nomination lay with W. F. Maclean, M. P. In his letter to the postmaster general he said: "In thus departing from the general rule which makes these appointments purely political, I have only to say that I do so out of respect to the wishes of the entire district of Yorkville, which seems determined on having Miss Dobson retain the position so long held by her father. Never before have I seen so much influence brought to bear in favor of an appointment. Conservatives and Reformers alike have joined in the recommendation."

Canoe Pin cushion.

An odd little pin cushion, a souvenir from the mountains, is in the form of an Indian canoe freighted with a couple of plush bags which hold pins. It is suspended by a silk cord. Different sizes can be used for this purpose. The one sketched here is ten inches long. The bags are made of brown plush and filled with sawdust. They are tied together with brown silk cord, and the canoe is suspended with the same.

Mrs. Patrick Campbell.

Mrs. Patrick Campbell has told a British interviewer that the public does not appreciate the mental and physical wear and tear which an actress undergoes in performing emotional parts. Her own remedy for this exhaustion is to devote herself to the commonplace duties of life and of her own household. Mrs. Campbell confesses that she made a romantic runaway match when she was a mere girl, and that she was the mother of two children before she was 20. She made her professional debut at the Alexander theater in Liverpool in 1888 after a short career as an amateur.

Queen Margherita.

A recent graceful act of Queen Margherita is being duly chronicled. Once a year she pays a visit to the girls' mission schools in Rome. She arrived there one day recently in an open carriage, and following came two others filled to overflowing with masses of exquisite flowers. These she ordered should be driven into the school gardens. When all the pupils and teachers had assembled, she handed to each a lovely bouquet with the laughing word: "Last year you all presented me with flowers. It is quite time that I repaid myself."

A Much Traveled Woman.

Mrs. John Richard Green, the widow of the historian, has returned to England, after an interesting and somewhat adventurous trip to Greece and to the site of Troy. During her travels Mrs. Green was fortunate in finding an opportunity of visiting the island of Delos, which is uninhabited and but seldom accessible to travelers.

Island Butter.

There is butter and there is butter but there is no butter that arrives in Honolulu so sweet and fresh as the Mikila and Waianae Butter. Its rapid transit by rail direct from the dairy to the Palama Grocery's large ice box so conveniently situated opposite the railway depot enables us to handle it to the best advantage. No wonder we are doing such a large butter business, when we are selling this fine butter at 35c. per lb. Palama Grocery, opposite Railway Depot, King street. Telephone 755.
